

Element of the America COMPETES Act	Operational	In Pilot	In Development	Planned
(1) A unique statewide student identifier that does not permit a student to be individually identified by users of the system;	●
(2) Student-level enrollment, demographic, and program participation information; In operation by the 2010-2011 school year		●
(3) Student-level information about the points at which students exit, transfer in, transfer out, drop out, or complete P-16 education programs; Entry and exit codes and ability to track cohort information will be operational by the 2010-2011 school year		●
(4) The capacity to communicate with higher education data systems; SDE is currently designing all systems to enable communication with higher education data systems. Once the higher education institutes enable the access to their data, SDE will accept and store the data				●
(5) A State data audit system assessing data quality, validity, and reliability; Data governance and quality audits will be in place by 2010-2011		●
(6) Yearly test records of individual students with respect to assessments under section 1111(b) of the ESEA (20 U.S.C. 6311(b));	●
(7) Information on students not tested by grade and subject;	●
(8) A teacher identifier system with the ability to match teachers to students; Staff identification, including unique teacher ID will be in place in first half of 2010.		●
(9) Student level transcript information, including information on courses completed and grades earned; Student level information will be implemented in the 2010-2011 school year			●
(10) Student-level college readiness test scores; Planned for implementation in 2010-2011 ?			●
(11) Information regarding the extent to which students transition successfully from secondary school to postsecondary education, including whether students enroll in remedial coursework SDE is currently designing all systems to enable communication with higher education data systems. Once the higher education institutes enable the access to their data, SDE will accept and store the data				●
(12) Other information determined necessary to address alignment and adequate preparation for success in postsecondary education. SDE is currently designing all systems to enable communication with higher education data systems. Once the higher education institutes enable the access to their data, SDE will accept and store the data				●